Before you start, please read these important Ambleview Place requirements.

1. Ambleview Place is a Seniors Equity Co-operative for those that are 60+ years old. At least one person in the couple must be 60+ years old.
2. Members must use Ambleview as their principal residence and may not be absent for more than 30 consecutive days. Unless Board approval is made.
3. To become a member, you must make a payment in full (deposit & principal) for the Membership Shares that are related to the suite that you will occupy. Payment must be as a bank draft or certified cheque
4. You will own shares (equity) in the Co-op related to the suite, but you will not actually own the suite. As such, banks will not finance a loan or mortgage for the purchase of the shares.
5. For Ambleview to run efficiently and sustainably, members are required to actively participate in the running of Ambleview to the best of their ability. This could include being on the Board of Directors and/or on one or more of the various committees.
6. Maintenance fees are derived from our yearly budget and are collected monthly.
7. Members must procure and provide yearly confirmation of suite content insurance, as well as car insurance, if you have a car.
8. Ambleview has a “No Pets” and “No Smoking Policy”
9. During a visitor’s stay, the suite’s member/s must always be in residence.
